

What is the course like at AS/A level?

How is it similar to Key Stage3/GCSE?

How is it different to GCSE?

How can I become successful?

How is it similar to GCSE?

- It is a continuation.
- You use textbooks, videos, tapes etc...
- You will still have tests at AS/A2 level in reading, speaking, listening and writing.
- ▼Vocabulary will be taught
- You will study topics, although more advanced ones and related to the countries.
- You will hold conversations with others in the language.

Study AS/A level in a language How is it different?

- The grammar and the way in which it is taught a very big difference from GCSE.
- It is important to understand the terminology.
- Part of the grammar resembles equations.
- Expanded and more mature vocabulary.
- Authentic dialogue in written & spoken texts.
- You will have a private speaking session with a native speaker each week.
- The amount of private study: minimum 3-5 hours outside lessons each week.
- The grammatical accuracy, e.g. verb/adjective endings/agreements etc..

What can I expect from the tutors?

- Support and encouragement.
- Covering the necessary parts of the syllabus.
- To be pushed to reach an even better standard.
- Effective feedback.
- Progress reviews.

How can I best prepare myself between now and the start of the course?

- Revise GCSE material
- View the full GCSE syllabus
- Study and grammar or vocabulary not covered at your school/college
- Read ahead
- Learn grammatical terms to develop your linguistic awareness. E.g. what is a verb? what is a noun? what is a pronoun? etc...
- Build knowledge of verb tenses.
- Buy a good dictionary
- Buy grammar and verb books
- Go on the internet listen and read real material e.g. the news. Use Google.
- Talk to native speakers.
- Try to travel if you can!

How can I use the time outside lessons?

- AS/A level in a language is very accumulative!
- Carry out 3-5 hours private study per week.
- Fill the gaps in your knowledge!
- Make sure that you have fully understood what you have been taught so you can build on it.
- Read a bit further ahead but don't overload yourself.
- Revise beginner to GCSE material, especially vocabulary.
- Really push yourself
- Make language learning part of your social life

Why should I study hours outside of class?

- You choose the subjects you are interested in at AS/A2
- To learn and read about the subject
- Develop skills
- Keep pace
- Pick up the material (vocabulary & verbs) as you go along
- Prepare for tests & exams

How can I use the time outside lessons?

- Language related social events
- Drama/Music
- Facebook/Twitter/Pen-friend
- Exchanges
- Listen to broadcasts online / radio vital for developing listening comprehension and pronunciation
- Go to cinema to see foreign languages films
- Scoialise with friends
- Go to authentic cafés/shops/restaurants shopping/dining

What support is available when I learn a language?

- The statement "learning has never been easier" also applies to language learning.
- Many help websites are available simply by "Googling".
- Access to authentic material is available thanks to the web.
- You could find a pen-friend either via the web or by telephone or advert.
- Attend local conversation classes.

What support is available when I learn a language? Continued...

Shropshire Languages Society can support you:

- Study regime & Learning Methods
- Resources
- Student support groups
- Social events useful for oral & writing preparation
- Induction & progression courses
- Mentor

You can contact a Learning Consultant, SLS advisoror the Vice President (responsible for Post GCSE) at anytime.

SHROPSHIRE LANGUAGES SOCIETY

THANK YOU!